2 THE COURT: Foreign Economic Industrial Bank Limited,
3 16-13534, and Larisa Ivanovna Markus, et al., 19-10096.

4 (Pause)

5 THE CLERK: Good morning, is the CourtCall operator on 6 the line?

7 COURTCALL OPERATOR: Yes, Madam Clerk.

8 THE CLERK: Okay, you can connect the parties to 9 listen for 11 o'clock. Thank you.

10 COURTCALL OPERATOR: You're welcome. Madam Clerk?

11 THE CLERK: Yes.

12 COURTCALL OPERATOR: They're listen-only?

13 THE CLERK: Yes.

14 COURTCALL OPERATOR: Thank you.

15 (Pause)

16 THE COURT: All right. Let me have the appearances,
17 first for the foreign representative.

18 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, This is Bruce Marks. I
19 represent the Deposit Insurance Agency, which is the foreign 20 representative in the bank case. And I represent Larisa
21 Markus -- I'm sorry -- I represent Mr. Rozhkov, who is the 22 foreign representative in the Larisa Markus bankruptcy. And on 23 CourtCall I have Sergey Sokolov, who is the head of our office
24 in Moscow, and I have Nina Kahn. With me from my firm, I have 25 my paralegal Katia Popova, and then we have new counsel who's

1 working with us today.

2 MR. LENNEY: Good morning, Your Honor. Douglas Leney
3 from Archer & Greiner. I filed a -- my office filed a pro hac
4 vice motion last night. I am not sure whether and to what 5 extent my direct participation today would be necessary, but --

6 THE COURT: That's fine.

7 MR. LENNEY: -- would ask the Court's indulgence.

8 Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: That's fine.

10 MR. WORMS: Good morning, Your Honor. Victor A. Worms
11 for Larisa Markus and also for the bank.

12 MR. SINGER: Good morning, Your Honor. Daniel A.
13 Singer for a whole list of entities which I will list in the 14 record. And in short form, they've often been referred to as 15 the Protax entities and the LM entities. But I'll list them
16 all now. It's LM Realty 31B, LLC; LM Realty 27D, LLC; LM
17 Realty 24, LLC; LM Realty 23H, LLC; LM Realty 20A, LLC; LM
18 Realty 18 West, LLC; LM Realty 10C, LLC; LM Property
19 Management; First Integrated Construction; Innovative 20 Construction Group Inc.; Larisa Markus Revocable Trust; the 21 LarMar Foundation -- and those are what's referred to as the LM
22 entities, typically, in this case.

23 And for the Protax entities we have Ilya Bykov; Protax
24 Services Inc.; and Protax Services Consulting. Now, Mr. Bykov
25 is not an entity, but he's typically been referred to that for

1 the short form.

2 THE COURT: For short-form purposes, I'm just going to
3 refer to the LM entities, okay?

4 MR. SINGER: That is fine, Your Honor. Just so you
5 know the reason for the designations, that they're completely
6 different. Protax is an accounting firm and services the LM
7 entities.

8 THE COURT: I'm just going to refer to --

9 MR. SINGER: No, okay --

10 THE COURT: -- all of your clients as the LM entities,
11 just for purposes of ease --

12 MR. SINGER: Understood.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

14 So obviously I entered this order scheduling the case
15 management conference on July 15th.

16 MR. PLOTKO: Sorry, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: You've all been fighting letter wars --
18 oh, I'm sorry. Go ahead.

19 MR. POLTKO: Sorry, just a couple more appearances
20 here.

21 THE COURT: Okay, go ahead.

22 MR. POLTKO: Gregory Plotko on behalf Richards Kibbe &
23 Orbe LLP.

24 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

25 MR. KINGSLEY: And good morning, Your Honor. Howard

1 Kingsley of Rosenberg & Estis, on behalf of the LM entities,
2 who are seeking to be relieved as counsel.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So I entered this scheduling order.
4 You all have been engaged in a variety of letter wars before
5 Judge Vyskocil, motion practice. I asked for status letters
6 about what was pending. I assume I've now been told everything
7 that is pending.

8 Let me make it clear, the letter wars are ending now.
9 Let me ask a few questions, at the start.

10 I am looking at Mr. Marks' July 19th letter, item 2,
11 the bank and Markus foreign representatives' letters dated June 12 10, 2019, requesting a discovery conference concerning the 13 failure of the LM entities to comply with the disclosure
14 provisions, et cetera.

15 Mr. Marks' letter indicates that the LM entities
16 haven't complied with an order regarding discovery. Mr. Marks, 17 do you want to just briefly address that?

18 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, I would be pleased to do that.
19 And I'd like to thank the Court for having the status
20 conference, because it has been the way -- in this case, the 21 only way we've gotten discovery is by having matters be through 22 the court. And yesterday, at about midnight, Mr. Singer
23 produced some additional documents, including the bank -- some 24 of the bank statements that we have been looking for.

25 These are bank statements that we have sought since

1 June 10th --

2 THE COURT: Okay, just tell me --

3 MR. MARKS: Yes.

4 THE COURT: -- have you gotten everything that you
5 have requested?

6 MR. MARKS: No, we have not.

7 THE COURT: Have you identified to Mr. Singer what you
8 requested that hasn't been produced?

9 MR. MARKS: Well, it was only produced at midnight
10 last night.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. MARKS: But it's the same things that have not 13 been produced. But I'll tell you what, Your Honor, it is, if I 14 may?

15 THE COURT: Go ahead.

16 MR. MARKS: And it's a short list.

17 THE COURT: Go ahead.

18 MR. MARKS: Number one, the envelopes, the postmarked
19 envelopes, of the checks that were sent after the freezing
20 order was entered. We're trying to determine where --

21 THE COURT: I understand what you're trying to 22 determine. I've read that. I understand --

23 MR. MARKS: Yes.

24 THE COURT: -- you want to see whether --

25 MR. MARKS: The checks were mailed out --

1           THE COURT: -- checks were sent before or after a
2 freeze order.

3           MR. MARKS: Yes.

4           THE COURT: I --

5           MR. MARKS: Two, we want to see the check ledger for 6 the LM trust -- if I can use the short term, the Larisa Markus
7 Revocable Trust and 550 Park Avenue, because we want to see the 8 order of the checks. Same reason.

9           THE COURT: Okay.

10          MR. MARKS: Want to see if the checks were --

11          THE COURT: What else?

12          MR. MARKS: And three, Your Honor, Judge Vyskocil
13 ordered that they would have to disclose where the funds are.
14 About a million -- about a million-two, okay, went out of the 15 LM Trust and 550 Park. Some of it went to Protax entities. We 16 just got those bank statements yesterday.

17          We didn't get the bank -- I'm sorry, excuse me. I
18 misspoke. For the Larisa Markus entities. So we know now what 19 funds are there and what aren't in there. But there was over,
20 I'd say, 600,000 dollars, that went to some of the Protax
21 entities: Protax, Inc., Pro Legal Services, we wanted to get
22 the bank statements --

23          THE COURT: Okay.

24          MR. MARKS: -- to show if the funds that came from the 25 sale of property are still there.

1           THE COURT: And let me ask you, Mr. Markus, did you
2 specific -- were you specific in the request for those 3 documents?

4           MR. MARKS: Yes, we were.

5           THE COURT: Okay.

6           MR. MARKS: In the letter to Mr. Singer, after we got
7 the disclosure on May 29th -- the disclosure to the Court
8 didn't say how much money was where. So we --

9           THE COURT: I'm just trying to find out --

10          MR. MARKS: I've been specific.

11          THE COURT: Okay.

12          MR. MARKS: I've been specific.

13          THE COURT: All right.

14          MR. MARKS: And I could tell Your Honor which entities
15 they are, if that's helpful. And I have it right here. And 16 this is in our letter to the Court. I actually --

17          THE COURT: I --

18          MR. MARKS: -- it's my June 10th letter. In my June 19 10th letter, we listed the entities right here, Your Honor.
20 This is ECF 60 in the Markus case. And I'm looking at page 2
21 of 3 of my letter. And we were looking for the account
22 statements, Your Honor. ECF 60. That's my May 31st letter.

23           For Pro Legal International, 93,000; Protax, 226,000;
24 Protax, 20,000; Protax 24,500; Protax 60,000; Protax 60,000.

25           We want to know if those funds are still in -- another

1       8,000 for Protax, another 120,000 for Protax, another 20,000
2 for Protax. We want to know if those funds are still in the
3 Protax Legal bank account. We want to know whether those funds
4 are still in the Protax account. Because any of those funds
5 that were still in the account as of May 29th, were ordered
6 frozen.

7                 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Anything else that 8 you're -- okay.

9                 Mr. Singer?

10                MR. SINGER: Thank you, Your Honor. Now, I believe I 11 placed most of the --

12                THE COURT: Go up to the podium.

13                MR. SINGER: Oh, absolutely.

14                THE COURT: Would you, please?

15                And all I want you to address for now is the 16 discovery.

17                MR. SINGER: And I believe most of these items have 18 already been addressed in my letters by --

19                THE COURT: I don't want to know about whether you've 20 addressed them by letter.

21                MR. SINGER: Um-hum.

22                THE COURT: Have you produced the documents that Mr.
23 Marks has identified and as repeated on the record now?

24                MR. SINGER: I will say this, I'm going to answer very 25 directly to Your Honor. We produced all the statements that

1 showed where the proceeds were going. So we're just --

2 THE COURT: Mr. Marks -- excuse me, Mr. Singer, I want
3 to know whether you have produced any bank records or other
4 documents that show where the funds were transferred to, where 5 they are now. That's really a yes or a no?

6 MR. SINGER: Yes, I have. And I'll explain.

7 THE COURT: All documents? You're not -- there are no
8 documents in your possession, custody, or control -- which also 9 includes your clients -- that have been requested by Mr. Marks, 10 that have not yet been produced with respect to the flow of 11 funds?

12 MR. SINGER: I have to -- sorry.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 MR. SINGER: I have to explain that a little bit, just 15 so I can be very clear with the Court. What happened with 16 Judge Vyskocil, when we disclosed to her -- if I may have a
17 one-minute leeway, and I will answer your question completely?

18 THE COURT: Go ahead.

19 MR. SINGER: Is that the proceeds from the U.K.
20 property were deposited into the LM Revocable Trust account
21 here in the United States. At the time that the freeze went 22 into effect, some money had already been disbursed from the 23 proceeds. Some were paid to attorneys. Some were paid to 24 Protax. Some were paid to other LM entities.

25 What Mr. Marks has, at this point, is all the

1 statements pertaining to all the -- what I've referred to as 2 the LM entities. What he doesn't have, okay, and which we are
3 going to adamantly argue, and if necessary, make motion
4 practice over, is the Protax bank statements.

5 Protax services many, many different clients. They 6 have never once requested, in any subpoena -- and I would have
7 moved to quash if they had done so -- okay -- Protax account
8 statements. There's never been an order to produce Protax
9 account statements. And if there had been such an order, I
10 would have moved for the appropriate relief, because that is 11 completely separate from the LM entities.

12 Regarding all the other entities, I will explain to 13 Your Honor, I -- they now have -- they have all the statements,
14 both from May -- when I produced the discovery that was due on 15 June 19th, I produced all the statements for the non-Protax LM
16 entities that were available at that time. Okay? They were 17 all given to them.

18 I then -- new statements became available. And 19 unfortunately I was delayed in Toronto, as I explained to their 20 colleague, so I had to -- I did email it late last night. I
21 was supposed to get back Sunday evening; I got back midday on 22 Monday. Completely out of my control, because of weather,
23 apparently. And so everything that's available, they have been 24 given.

25 There is four accounts, which at the end of this

1 month, they should be getting new account statements from my
2 client. I think it is the LM Revocable Trust comes due
3 around -- my client said, around July 28th. And the same thing
4 with and account called 551 Park Avenue. When I get those
5 account statements, I will forward it to him. So yes --

6 THE COURT: Let me ask -- let me drill down a little 7 bit.

8 MR. SINGER: Yeah. Yeah.

9 THE COURT: Are there Protax statements that include
10 information about any of the entities that Mr. Marks has asked
11 about but also include information about unrelated entities?
12 Because you talked about Protax has lots of other clients, and 13 there's lots of other information. That gets handled with 14 redaction. But you can't withhold documents that -- don't 15 interrupt -- you can't withhold documents that have information
16 about any of the entities involved in the litigation, because 17 the documents contain other things. You deal with it with 18 redaction.

19 Do you know whether there are statements that have not 20 been produced because you say they include information about 21 other unrelated clients, but also include information that Mr.
22 Marks has requested.

23 MR. SINGER: I want to be very clear about this, Your 24 Honor. We have had a series of subpoenas throughout this case,
25 never once, one occasion whatsoever, have they ever requested

1 Protax bank statements. The reason why they knew they didn't
2 do that because it's way off base, in my opinion. They have
3 never ever requested --

4 THE COURT: Could you answer my question?

5 MR. SINGER: It --

6 THE COURT: Are there Protax statements that include
7 information about any of the parties involved in this
8 litigation, but also include information about other unrelated
9 entities --

10 MR. SINGER: Abs --

11 THE COURT: Let me finish.

12 MR. SINGER: Sorry.

13 THE COURT: Because as I said before, that gets dealt 14 with regularly through redacting information about unrelated
15 clients.

16 Do you know, as you stand there now, whether there are 17 statements that you have not produced that include -- you
18 didn't produce because they include information about other
19 entities? That's a yes or a no.

20 MR. SINGER: I have not produced any Protax
21 statements, and yes, they do contain information about many 22 other entities, absolutely.

23 THE COURT: And they do contain inform -- you know
24 that there are statements that you have not produced that 25 include information about the LM entities --

1 MR. SINGER: Well, they would -- they would --

2 THE COURT: -- yes or no?

3 MR. SINGER: I mean, because -- yeah. Because on 4 the -- on the LM Revocable Trust, it says that it gets 5 deposited into the -- it says it. I mean, it says the money to 6 Protax. So there's no --

7 THE COURT: Okay. When are you going to be able to 8 produce all statements from Protax redacted to exclude
9 unrelated information that include information about the LM
10 entities?

11 MR. SINGER: I would -- well, I would want to -- I
12 would like to reserve the right to make a motion practice (sic)
13 about that.

14 THE COURT: No, I deal with discovery just the way I'm 15 dealing with them now. I don't have motion practice. You read
16 my chambers rules and you'll see that. I deal with discovery
17 issues very, very promptly.

18 What you've told me now is that there are Protax
19 documents that contain information about the LM entities but 20 also contain information about lots of unrelated clients. And 21 what I'm telling you is, the way that is being dealt with is my 22 order on the record -- I'm so ordering the transcript -- that 23 you produce in redacted form all statements that include
24 information -- that have not been produced, that include
25 information about the LM entities. And you will certify that

1 the only thing that has been redacted is information about
2 unrelated clients.

3 Why shouldn't -- I'm going to give you a chance to 4 tell me why shouldn't I order what I've just said?

5 MR. SINGER: Because it's I -- in my opinion, Your
6 Honor, it's overly -- it's overly intrusive --

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. SINGER: -- okay -- into their -- if I may 9 finish -- I'm sorry, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: No, go ahead.

11 MR. SINGER: Okay. It's overly intrusive. There -- I
12 have not seen the Protax bank statements, so I can't tell you
13 what exactly is in there, but there may be transactions which 14 involve more than one client -- it's possible -- and it would 15 be violating the right of a client.

16 THE COURT: Oh, I understand. And I'm telling you --

17 MR. SINGER: Right.

18 THE COURT: -- that you can redact the statements to 19 remove the information about unrelated entities. What you
20 can't do is refuse to produce documents that relate to the 21 parties in this litigation, because it happens to be included
22 in documents that includes information about other entities.

23 MR. SINGER: So just so I'm clear, Your Honor, because 24 I want to make sure I'm going to --

25 THE COURT: But you're going to certify -- you're

1 going to put in a statement under oath, that the only thing
2 that has been redacted is information about entities other --
3 unrelated entities -- I'll use that as a shorthand term.
4 You'll work out with Mr. Marks --

5 MR. SINGER: Okay, I'll --

6 THE COURT: -- how that's going to be done.

7 I want -- there has to -- if you're going to redact
8 documents, there is going to be a certification that any 9 information relating to the LM entities -- and I'm short-
10 handing it -- has been produced.

11 MR. SINGER: Okay. Because of this -- I would want
12 this anyway, but particularly because I'm going to be 13 certifying it as an attorney, I want to make sure I'm a hundred 14 percent clear.

15 THE COURT: Order the transcript. I'm being crystal
16 clear here.

17 MR. SINGER: Oh, I'm sorry, Your Honor. I just wanted
18 to add a question. But --

19 THE COURT: Go ahead.

20 MR. SINGER: So I basically -- from my 21 understanding -- so if it's, for example -- the reason this is 22 becoming an immediate issue is because the -- there were 23 deposits from the LM Revocable Trust account into Protax. And 24 obviously those are the -- those are the types of transactions
25 that we're looking for, because it involves an LM entity that

1 has transactions in or out of Protax. I just want to make sure
2 I'm understanding Your Honor's order.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Marks, do you want to address that?

4 MR. MARKS: I do, Judge.

5 THE COURT: I'm not giving you unrelated -- I'm not
6 giving you information about other clients.

7 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, I have no interest in his --

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. MARKS: -- other clients. But I have an interest
10 in the bank statements. And I'd tell Your Honor that I would 11 like to have them produced, if Your Honor would agree.

12 The money flow began on March 29th of 2019 to Pro
13 Legal International, one of their entities. We would like the 14 bank statements for March, April, May, June, so that we can see 15 what the balances are; because if the --

16 THE COURT: You're not going to see the balances that 17 relate to other --

18 MR. MARKS: Well, there's --

19 THE COURT: -- to their other clients.

20 MR. MARKS: -- going to be money coming in and out of 21 the account, right, Your Honor?

22 THE COURT: I don't know. I haven't seen them.

23 MR. MARKS: Okay. But here's the issue. We're trying 24 to find out -- I don't care, again, about what their -- why the 25 money is going into the account, why the money is going out of

1 the account. But what I need to know is: is the money that
2 came from the LM Trust still in the account?

3 So the only way I can know that is to figure out what
4 went in, what went out, and what's left -- if you follow me --
5 so I could trace everything; right, Judge?

6 So if somebody is trying to trace money, and you know
7 the money went into somebody else's account, you get the 8 account statement, you just don't get any of the details as to 9 why the other transactions existed. That's what I'm trying to 10 figure out, whether any of that money was still in the 11 account -- actually I only need them through -- I really need
12 them through May 29th, because that's when Judge Vyskocil
13 entered her order.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Here's what --

15 MR. MARKS: Does Your Honor understand my concern?

16 THE COURT: Just stop a second. Stop.

17 MR. MARKS: Sorry.

18 THE COURT: Sit down, please. You can have a seat.

19 MR. SINGER: How about the other things about the 20 envelopes? I wanted to address those.

21 THE COURT: Well, we'll get to that.

22 MR. SINGER: Okay, thank you.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Marks and Mr. Singer, with 24 respect to these other Protax accounts for which statements
25 haven't been produced, I want you to try to agree on the form

1 of an order for production. I will give you until Friday at 2 noon to do that.

3 If you agree, submit it as -- and you can reserve your
4 objections to what I'm ordering, Mr. Singer. I have no problem
5 about that. Good luck, frankly.

6 If you can't agree, submit your counter-proposed
7 order. This is going to get resolved. We're not going to have 8 another hearing. I'm just going resolve it. I'm just telling 9 you it's going to get resolved.

10 I understand Mr. Marks' issue about -- because I
11 certainly litigated cases that involved tracing. Okay? And 12 see if you can resolve -- it may be that the balance of the 13 accounts -- they're account statements by month, I assume. And 14 the balance of the account statements at the end of the month,
15 not indicating whose money it is, I think it probably should be 16 disclosed. But I want you to see if you can agree on the form
17 of the order with respect to these other statements.

18 They're going to get produced. There is going to be 19 redaction. Your client is not going to have to disclose
20 information about other entities.

21 MR. SINGER: May I say one thing?

22 THE COURT: Go ahead.

23 MR. SINGER: Okay. So one thing -- I want to be 24 clear, now. I'm going to confirm this with my client. My 25 understanding that the transactions that you see on the LM

1 Revocable Trust bank accounts to Protax were to pay old bills,
2 all of which -- I know all of which were before May 29th. So I
3 want to be clear about that. If there were any transfers that 4 occurred prior to the order, from what I understand -- I will
5 confirm this -- were to go to pay old bills.

6 THE COURT: Frankly, I don't care whether they're 7 before the freeze order or after the freeze order, because even 8 if they're before the freeze order, there may be issues about 9 avoidance of any transactions.

10 So I'm not drawing a line between before or after the 11 freeze order. It's certainly relevant to the issue of whether,
12 for example, there was contempt or something like that. Okay?
13 But in terms of disclosure of information, it's not limited to 14 post-freeze-order. Clear?

15 MR. SINGER: I am clear. Do we have a time frame,
16 though for that? Just that we will --

17 THE COURT: Well, you're going to submit the order --

18 MR. SINGER: Okay.

19 THE COURT: -- by this Friday. How much time do you
20 need -- you ought to -- don't wait for the order. Do you have 21 the documents already?

22 MR. SINGER: I do not have the documents.

23 THE COURT: Okay, where's your client?

24 MR. SINGER: He's in -- he's in New York, as far as I
25 know.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. SINGER: I mean, Protax --

3 THE COURT: Well, when you leave here, you'll call
4 your client --

5 MR. SINGER: Sure.

6 THE COURT: -- and they better start pulling -- Mr.
7 Marks has identified, what, three months or four months?

8 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, March, April, May, June -- I'm 9 sorry, March, April, May, June, July.

10 THE COURT: Five months. Okay.

11 So their statement for five months.

12 MR. SINGER: To the extent -- not to go back to -- but 13 July might not be available --

14 THE COURT: Don't go back.

15 MR. SINGER: -- but so as soon as they're made 16 available.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. SINGER: Yeah. I'll make --

19 THE COURT: All right. Okay.

20 MR. SINGER: -- I will discuss, and I will reserve my 21 rights.

22 THE COURT: You ought to be able to work this issue
23 out. What I'm being crystal clear about is you all ought to 24 understand that redaction is the way one deals with production
25 of documents that involve unrelated parties, for example,

1 particularly with things like bank statements that involve
2 transfers and things like that. Okay.

3 Okay, now let's deal with the next issue. Go ahead,
4 Mr. Singer.

5 MR. SINGER: May I go back to the podium now?

6 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead. Please.

7 MR. SINGER: Okay.

8 THE COURT: So we're talking about the envelopes. As 9 I understand it, Mr. Marks is trying to determine whether there
10 were transfers after the freeze order. And so he's asked for 11 production of the envelopes that were -- so what's the story
12 there?

13 MR. SINGER: First of all -- and I put my position
14 clear in my letter is that I -- my position is those should not 15 be produced. And let me explain why, very simply.

16 First of all, there was no transfer. He knows this,
17 because he has all the LM Revocable Trust accounts, and if 18 there was a transfer, the check would have cleared and it would 19 be done. So this is the line of discovery, as far as I'm 20 concerned, which he's not even entitled to. It's a waste -- he 21 wants -- this is a waste of everybody's time --

22 THE COURT: Do you have the envelopes?

23 MR. SINGER: I have kept the envelope in escrow in my 24 office. Yes, I have.

25 THE COURT: Okay, produce the -- I'm ordering that the

1 envelopes be produced.

2 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, Mr. Plotko has an envelope
3 and -- I'm sorry, Howard, what's your last name?

4 MR. KINGSLEY: Kingsley.

5 MR. MARKS: And Mr. Kingsley have envelopes. We're 6 looking for three envelopes. But those are the people to whom 7 the checks were mailed.

8 THE COURT: Okay. If the envelopes are -- if the 9 envelopes are in the possession, custody, or control of one of 10 the counsel -- when I say possession, custody, or control, it
11 could be at your client, it could be -- if you know that it
12 exists, I'm ordering it produced. Put that in the order as 13 well.

14 Next issue. Any other discovery issues?

15 MR. SINGER: I don't -- I think that's all I had 16 marked down as --

17 THE COURT: Mr. Marks?

18 MR. MARKS: One. And again, it's a simple one. We'd 19 like to have the check register for the LM Trust. That would 20 be for the -- that would be for the month of June. It would --
21 they would keep a check register, like anybody else.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Singer?

23 MR. SINGER: I have -- my objection would be the same.
24 I have no idea if they even have a check register or how 25 their --

1           THE COURT: Well, I guess you'll find out today, won't
2 you?

3           MR. SINGER: So for what period, the check register?

4           MR. MARKS: Your Honor, I'm sorry. The order was on 5 May 29th. May 1st through May 31st.

6           THE COURT: Okay. Add it to the order. I'm ordering
7 it produced.

8           Any other discovery issues?

9           MR. MARKS: Not for --

10          THE COURT: Any other counsel have any other discovery
11 issues?

12          MR. SINGER: No, we're having -- there's a meet-and-
13 confer we're having on probably Friday. We'll --

14          THE COURT: Say that again?

15          MR. MARKS: Your Honor, we have an outstanding -- it's 16 not ripe for today, Your Honor. We have an issue on the 17 ediscovery, whether there's been compliance with the order --

18          THE COURT: You'll --

19          MR. MARKS: -- it's not ripe for today.

20          THE COURT: It's not ripe for today.

21          MR. SINGER: Not ripe for today.

22          THE COURT: Look, I'm just telling you all -- and I
23 don't mean to pick on anybody about this, this is how I deal
24 with discovery issues. Okay?

25          I don't want motions. If I hear argument, for

1 example -- if there's some nuanced privilege issue, I'll ask
2 for letter briefs on it. But typically, I listen to counsel
3 and I resolve the discovery disputes. No motions. It cuts
4 down the cost and the time.

5 If you can't resolve issues, you call chambers and you
6 request a telephone conference. And I will -- you may have
7 been here during the last hearing in Beechwood. And what I
8 said there is what experience shows is because counsel find out
9 that the discovery disputes are going to be resolved within a
10 day or two, they don't come to me, because they realize it
11 isn't going to be weeks of motion practice for an issue to get 12 resolved.

13 And the last thing I would say in that. After 14 repeated -- if there are -- this very rarely ever happens now.
15 But if there are repeated instances where I think discovery
16 issues are raised that the parties should have worked out and 17 they don't, I get pretty testy about it. And I will -- you 18 don't want that.

19 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, if I might?

20 THE COURT: Go ahead.

21 MR. MARKS: I don't want you to get testy, Judge, but 22 there were two issues that -- there are discovery issues that 23 are out there that we didn't initiate.

24 And on the letters, by the way, Judge Vyskocil --

25 THE COURT: Just tell me what it is.

1                   MR. MARKS: Okay. We served a subpoena on Mr. Worms,
2 who purports to represent Ms. Markus. And he filed a motion to 3 quash.

4                   THE COURT: What is -- what is it you want from -- is 5 it a document subpoena or deposition subpoena?

6                   MR. MARKS: Document subpoena.

7                   THE COURT: What is the documents you asked for?

8                   MR. MARKS: Well, one is we wanted the documents that 9 evidenced his authority to represent Ms. Markus. Number two,
10 we want the documents that would indicate whether Ms. Markus
11 received the notice that was sent to her, of the Chapter 15
12 proceeding. We wanted any powers of attorney that Ms. Markus
13 executed that relate to this Chapter 15 proceeding here, 14 because we know she executed one that related to --

15                  THE COURT: This is on the issue of the motion to 16 vacate recognition?

17                  MR. MARKS: That is correct. For whatever reason, Ms.
18 Markus has chosen to appear in this case. So we asked for all
19 documents that relate to her --

20                  THE COURT: Okay.

21                  MR. MARKS: -- assets.

22                  THE COURT: Let me hear from Mr. Worms.

23                  MR. MARKS: So Your Honor, we didn't reach out to 24 chambers on it --

25                  THE COURT: I'm just asking Mr. Worms now to --

1 MR. MARKS: But he filed a motion to quash.

2 THE COURT: Yeah. What's the basis for the motion to 3 quash, Mr. Worms?

4 MR. WORMS: Judge, I think Mr. Marks hasn't correctly
5 represented to the Court what this document request is, what
6 the subpoena is specifically. It's actually quite voluminous
7 in its request. It seeks documents from Ms. Markus, who he 8 well knows, is in a prison in Russia someplace.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. WORMS: I mean, the detail and the extent of what 11 he's seeking goes beyond the pale of information that would 12 help --

13 THE COURT: Mr. Worms, let me just stop you there,
14 because as you just articulated it, I've heard that same
15 argument for years, and it gets no traction from me. Okay?

16 So be specific about -- let me ask you this. Have you
17 met and conferred with Mr. Marks to address, document-by-18 document, what is included within his request? Because just as 19 I've indicated, I deal with discovery disputes in this very 20 expeditious fashion, I don't need motions to quash subpoenas
21 when you have a discovery dispute.

22 Mr. Marks has asked for discovery from you of certain
23 documents. You meet and confer and you endeavor to resolve it.
24 Document requests should be as specific as they possibly can
25 be. And Mr. Marks was fairly specific in identifying for me

1 what he's asked for. Perhaps his request is broader, but that
2 usually gets worked out in the meet-and-confer between counsel.

3 I will agree, I have this; I will give you that; I
4 can't -- I don't understand what you're asking for in this; can
5 you refine it further. That's how discovery disputes generally
6 get worked out and don't have to come to me.

7 I think in twelve-and-a-half years I've only quashed
8 one subpoena for discovery, okay, when its: they're asking for 9 too much; it's too burdensome; she's in jail. Okay. I'm 10 telling this -- you were up at the microphone, and I said it to 11 you, but it's for the benefit of all of you in going forward.

12 But go ahead, Mr. Worms.

13 MR. WORMS: Judge, I don't think you can address the 14 issue of the motion to quash or the subpoena separate from the 15 motion to vacate the recognition order, because the recognition
16 order is the predicate for all these orders, including 17 specifically, the subpoena.

18 And I think if the Court takes a look at --

19 THE COURT: Mr. Worms, I overrule that objection. I
20 will deal with the issue about vacating recognition. The 21 issue, as I understand it, about vacating recognition, is 22 whether proper service was done on your client or not. What
23 Mr. Marks has asked for, it seems to me, are documents --
24 discovery that go directly to the issue of whether recognition
25 was proper, whether recognition should be vacated.

1           When I have -- I'll just tell you, when I have matters
2 pending before me -- people say, we have a motion to dismiss
3 pending, Your Honor. And I say that's nice, but discovery is 4 going forward.

5           So I'm overruling -- look, Mr. Worms, I'm just telling
6 you now, you meet and -- before you leave here today, you meet
7 and confer with Mr. Marks. You seek to resolve -- he's been 8 very specific to me, at least, about what documents he wants.
9 They all seem to have a direct bearing on the motion to vacate
10 recognition. And --

11           MR. WORMS: I'm not quite sure if that's true --

12           THE COURT: Stop. Don't interrupt me. It goes to all
13 of you. When I'm speaking, don't interrupt.

14           I expect -- Mr. Marks, I expect from you and Mr.
15 Worms, a status letter by this Friday at noon as to the status
16 of the issues about the requests for production from Mr. Worms.
17 Okay? And I will -- if you want you can state whatever
18 objections you want, Mr. Worms, and I will rule on it without a 19 further hearing, based on the status letters. Understood?

20           Go ahead, Mr. Marks.

21           MR. MARKS: I didn't want to interrupt.

22           THE COURT: Go ahead.

23           MR. MARKS: There is one other subpoena, Your Honor, 24 that's out there. We've put a subpoena -- this relates to 25 where he purports to represent the bank. And he filed a motion

1 to vacate the bank recognition order. So we served a subpoena
2 on him for any documents, for example, that indicate that he's
3 authorized to represent the bank.

4 He had some purported basis to challenge the 5 recognition. We asked him for any documents that he has that 6 support the allegations of his motion to vacate.

7 Your Honor, we served the subpoena on Mr. Worms,
8 because there's just no way that he represents the bank. The -- 9 bank is in insolvency proceeding in Russia. The --

10 THE COURT: He filed an appearance on behalf of the 11 bank?

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. MARKS: I mean, this is --

15 THE COURT: Okay. Address -- I'm just telling you --

16 MR. WORMS: Judge, if I might --

17 THE COURT: -- to stop --

18 MR. MARKS: We'll do the same process.

19 THE COURT: -- meet and confer. I want the letter by 20 Friday at noon. Go ahead, Mr. Worms.

21 MR. WORMS: I was just going to let the Court know
22 that in my letter of Friday, July 19th, I indicated I would be 23 making a motion to quash that subpoena, which I did do this 24 morning, Your Honor.

25 So I'm happy to meet with Mr. Marks and to confer with

1 him. But I --

2 THE COURT: I just told you how I deal -- I don't have
3 hearings on motions to quash subpoenas. We deal with it the 4 way I'm dealing with you all now. It's a discovery dispute.
5 You meet and confer. You address the specific document
6 requests.

7 I'm telling you now that you are not going to delay
8 discovery by saying I have a motion pending to vacate
9 recognition. That isn't happening. Okay?

10 So it seems to me that the documents Mr. Marks has 11 requested go to the issues that are relevant to the motions to 12 vacate recognition, and therefore, you're going to produce them
13 unless you have some other basis for saying I can't, I won't,
14 et cetera.

15 MR. WORMS: No, Judge. Let me just address that point 16 that you just made -- this last point. The documents he 17 requests are not entirely related to recognition. It goes well 18 beyond the scope of recognition. And I will, in my letter to 19 you on Friday, Judge, address those issues.

20 THE COURT: Look, I'm telling you right now, I don't 21 want to hear -- the scope of discovery is broader than the 22 precise issues in the litigation or on recognition. Unless you
23 have a good-faith basis to assert privilege, attorney-client
24 privilege, you're going to produce the documents. I'm telling
25 you in the clearest terms, and I don't want to have to tell you

1 again, after getting letters on this, that you're not producing
2 the documents because you think they're overbroad or it's not
3 specifically limited to the issues on the motion to vacate
4 recognition.

5 You will produce all non-privileged documents that
6 have been requested. Do you understand that, Mr. Worms?

7 MR. WORMS: Judge, I do understand. I was just trying 8 to bring to the Court's attention a statement that was not 9 entirely correct. And that was specifically that these 10 documents are well beyond the scope of the recognition issue, 11 Judge.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. WORMS: That's all I --

14 THE COURT: And I'm telling you that whether they're 15 beyond the scope of the recognition issue, if they -- unless 16 they are -- you have a good-faith basis to allege attorney-
17 client privilege, you're going to produce them.

18 MR. WORMS: Okay, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Has that resolved all of the 20 discovery issues for today?

21 Mr. Worms' letter of July 19th, in the penultimate
22 paragraph, indicates that on July 15, 2019, counsel for his 23 clients wrote to the Court requesting that both cases be 24 referred to mediation in an effort to facilitate a settlement
25 of both cases.

1 Have counsel discussed the request for mediation?

2 MR. WORMS: Your Honor, I wrote to Mr. Marks several
3 emails last week indicating a strong interest on our part to 4 mediate as a part of a process to try to settle these cases.

5 He expressed, I would say, reluctance to mediate. I
6 think, Judge, given all the issues here in this case, it would 7 not only serve judicial economy, but I think it would
8 facilitate a settlement of this case, Judge.

9 So I reaffirm --

10 THE COURT: Okay, you've asked. Let me hear, Mr.
11 Marks, what's your position about mediation?

12 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, we're not -- we're not 13 interested in his proposal, which was to stay everything in 14 order to mediate.

15 THE COURT: Okay, I --

16 MR. MARKS: But particularly, we're not interested in 17 mediating with Mr. Worms, for two reasons. One is, we doubt 18 that he really represents Ms. Markus. She's in prison in 19 Russia. She has attorneys in Russia. This is -- at the end of 20 the day, any resolution with Ms. Markus would need to be likely 21 a global resolution. If her attorneys in Russia who actually 22 do represent her --

23 THE COURT: May I ask you this? Has he represented to 24 you that he does represent her?

25 MR. MARKS: Well, yeah, he filed a -- we asked him --

1 the subpoenas we asked him for the evidence that he has that 2 represents Ms. Markus. He didn't --

3 THE COURT: He's representing to the Court that he 4 represents -- he's filed an appearance in --

5 MR. MARKS: I --

6 THE COURT: -- and he's represented to the Court that 7 he's representing her.

8 MR. MARKS: I understand that. We're trying to 9 understand how that -- but Your Honor, in terms of --

10 THE COURT: Let's get over that.

11 MR. MARKS: Okay.

12 THE COURT: What's your position on mediation?

13 MR. MARKS: For Ms. Markus, Your Honor, there's no
14 reason to mediate through Mr. Worms for Ms. Markus. She's a
15 Russian in prison with Russian attorneys who handled her guilty
16 plea of taking the two billion dollars. If there's going to be 17 a discussion with Ms. Markus, it will have to be in Russia, 18 with her attorneys.

19 THE COURT: You haven't given me a good reason for not 20 directing mediation, because mediation works when you get 21 everybody in the room together.

22 MR. MARKS: The only room we could get Ms. Markus in,
23 Your Honor, is in Russia.

24 What we would do -- if Mr. Worms says he's going to go
25 to Russia and he wants to do something in Russia with his

1 client and with the two foreign representatives who are in
2 Russia, then that would be something I would take instruction
3 on. But a mediation with him on behalf of Ms. Markus, in our 4 opinion, doesn't make sense.

5 THE COURT: Why not?

6 MR. MARKS: Because there's a -- there are global 7 issues with which her counsel in Russia are familiar with --

8 THE COURT: How do you resolve the global issues if 9 her -- she isn't getting out of prison to go to a mediation.

10 MR. MARKS: Well, as --

11 THE COURT: How do you -- how do you resolve the 12 global issues without her representative participating in the 13 mediation? You may discover it was a waste of time and that'll
14 be the end of it. But you haven't persuaded me why mediation
15 doesn't make sense?

16 MR. MARKS: Because we -- the people, Your Honor, who 17 would need to participate in that mediation would be the people
18 who had knowledge of Ms. Markus' worldwide financial concerns.
19 And with all due respect, I don't think it's Mr. Worms. He's 20 had no communications with her. We don't believe he's had any 21 communications with her Russian lawyers or any other
22 representative of somebody who's associated with Ms. Markus,
23 other than perhaps Mr. Bykov, who might have been the person
24 who -- well, we're pretty certain that it was Mr. Bykov who was 25 the person who paid him the money. That's the issue on Ms.

1 Markus. We don't think he's the right person.

2 I mean, and on the Bank, Your Honor, I mean, it's a
3 little crazy.

4 THE COURT: Why?

5 MR. MARKS: We represent the bank. He doesn't. The 6 bank -- how could we -- the bank is -- the bank is in 7 insolvency proceeding, Your Honor, in Russia. The bank is 8 controlled by the Deposit Insurance Agency. The Deposit
9 Insurance Agency has engaged our firm to represent the bank.

10 With all due respect, Your Honor, there is no
11 conceivable way that Mr. Worms could represent the bank. And 12 then, how could we possibly have a mediation where one of her
13 major creditors is the bank represented by Mr. Worms, with her?
14 I mean, how could that -- it makes -- how could he possibly be 15 representing the bank whose interests are directly adverse to 16 Ms. Markus, in a mediation, where we're trying to find out what 17 happened to the two billion dollars that she pled that she took 18 from the bank?

19 So with all due respect, it just doesn't make sense to 20 do this through Mr. Worms. Somebody -- Your Honor, maybe -- 21 there is no -- with all due respect, Judge, there's no way he 22 could represent the bank.

23 THE COURT: You know, about three decades ago --

24 MR. MARKS: Yeah.

25 THE COURT: -- I remember being told by a senior

1 partner in the firm that I was practicing, never start an
2 argument "with all due respect, Judge".

3 MR. MARKS: Okay. I didn't mean with due respect to 4 Your Honor. It's with all due respect to Mr. Worms, we don't
5 see any way that he could represent a bank that's in insolvency
6 that's controlled by the Deposit Insurance Agency.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. MARKS: It would be like me coming to a court,
9 okay, as a debtor of a bank that's controlled by the FDIC --

10 THE COURT: Let me ask you a question, Mr. Marks. Can 11 this matter be globally resolved through a settlement?

12 MR. MARKS: Globally? Yes. I don't know, Your Honor,
13 because I'm only right now responsible for trying to recover
14 the assets in the United States. But what I would say, Your 15 Honor, it's premature to have a mediation until two things
16 happen.

17 One is that we get the electronic discovery that we've 18 been seeking and should have been produced pursuant to the 19 orders at the May 29th hearing, and it hasn't been produced
20 yet. And number two, we want to take a deposition of Mr.
21 Bykov.

22 Once we've done those two things, once we've got the 23 electronic discovery and we have the Rule -- whatever it is -- 24 2002, 2004, I forgot the nomenclature in the bankruptcy -- then 25 we'd be in a position.

1 I mean --

2 THE COURT: So let me ask this.

3 MR. MARKS: Yeah.

4 THE COURT: If -- this is a Chapter 15 -- two Chapter
5 15 cases.

6 MR. MARKS: That's right.

7 THE COURT: And this Court's authority only extends to 8 property in the United States. Can't there be a resolution of 9 the Chapter 15 case that deals with the property in the United 10 States that leaves -- go and litigate whatever else in the 11 world you want to do, but on my watch, I deal with property in 12 the United States.

13 So I hear you about wanting to get discovery so that 14 you're all on a level playing field about what is the property
15 in the United States, who was it transferred, when was it
16 transferred, and can avoidance claims or whatever be brought.
17 But do you agree that it ought -- it should be possible to have 18 a resolution of these Chapter 15 cases by dealing with the 19 claims to property in the United States?

20 MR. MARKS: Not exactly. And if I could tell --

21 THE COURT: Tell my why.

22 MR. MARKS: -- tell Your Honor why. And this 23 actually, the issue came up with Judge Vyskocil in terms of the 24 breadth of discovery. We're getting discovery here in the 25 United States not just to discover assets in the United States

1 but to discover assets that might be outside the United 2 States.

3 For example, we're taking discovery of banks to find
4 where money has been wired. Well, we may learn -- and we did,
5 for example, that money was wired to companies in Nevis, which
6 we now believe were controlled by Ms. Markus.

7 THE COURT: Wired from the United States?

8 MR. MARKS: Through the United States.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. MARKS: Because, I mean, you put the JP --

11 THE COURT: Well, the new Madoff decision from the 12 Second Circuit would suggest if there were transfers from the 13 United States even to foreign countries that it might be 14 recoverable under 548, for example.

15 MR. MARKS: But here --

16 THE COURT: Look. We're not going to go further on 17 this issue today.

18 MR. MARKS: I just wanted to, Judge --

19 THE COURT: I'm not particularly -- you haven't
20 persuaded me that -- stop. You haven't persuaded me that 21 mediation shouldn't take place to try to resolve the issues
22 regarding property in the United States. I agree that you need
23 to be able to get this discovery that you -- let's address
24 the -- what's the status of the request for electronic 25 discoveries?

1 MR. MARKS: May I just add --

2 THE COURT: No, just answer my question about that. I
3 want to know about the electronic discovery.

4 MR. MARKS: We got an email from Mr. Singer a couple
5 of weeks ago. We asked him where we are in the electronic 6 discovery, because there were not very many emails and no text
7 messages produced.

8 He said that they had done certain searches, okay, and 9 the searches come up with "too many hits", and therefore they 10 aborted them.

11 THE COURT: May I ask, did you exchange search terms?

12 MR. MARKS: So after that we exchanged search terms.
13 And we provided our search terms, and we had questions to him,
14 because it didn't look like they were searching all the -- and 15 we asked to have a meet and confer. That was supposed to 16 happen yesterday, so that we would be able to update the Court
17 today.

18 Mr. Singer had travel problems. We appreciate that.

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MR. MARKS: So we're going to have the meet and 21 confer -- when?

22 MR. SINGER: Friday is fine. Friday morning I had 23 said to you in the email.

24 MR. MARKS: So it's all fair and good.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1                   MR. MARKS: Your Honor, I just wanted to just say one
2 thing.

3                   THE COURT: Go ahead.

4                   MR. MARKS: The problem with when you're talking about 5 settling the dispute over the property in the United States,
6 what Mr. Bykov may say, well, I want a global release in order
7 to do that, and so that makes the settlement in the United
8 States a little more complicated.

9                   THE COURT: You're speculating.

10                  MR. MARKS: Well, if I were his attorney I would.

11                  THE COURT: Well, look, you're speculating.

12                  MR. MARKS: But you're right.

13                  THE COURT: You know, I've heard lots of reasons why
14 people don't want to discuss settlement.

15                  MR. MARKS: But if Your Honor wants to suggest a 16 mediation that would take place sometime in September, after we 17 can complete the electronic discovery, we can take Mr. Bykov's
18 deposition. To me that would be sensible. And if it were to 19 take place in Moscow, it would be even more sensible.

20                  THE COURT: Have you noticed the deposition?

21                  MR. MARKS: Not yet, but we can do that, Judge.

22 That's easy to do.

23                  We could schedule it for late August. We could 24 schedule it for early September. It depends on counsel's 25 schedule.

1           MR. SINGER: Your Honor, may I respond to some of the 2 things that have been said?

3           THE COURT: Go ahead. Go ahead.

4           MR. SINGER: Okay.

5           THE COURT: Mr. Singer.

6           MR. SINGER: First of all, without going into the 7 substance, Mr. Marks is very well aware that there are 8 settlement discussions going on on a global level, which is 9 exactly why it would make sense to do mediation here to 10 coordinate those efforts.

11          As far as discovery goes, we have produced over 25,000
12 pages of documents. There is simply no situation where they 13 don't know where the property is when it was transferred, et 14 cetera.

15          I don't want to waste the Court's time on this, so
16 I'll have a meet and confer with his office on Friday, but one
17 of the issues is they've never provided me with search terms.
18 So what I did in the email, as per the Court's order, is I had 19 my --

20          THE COURT: Just stop.

21          MR. SINGER: Yes.

22          THE COURT: Just stop.

23          MR. SINGER: Yes.

24          THE COURT: You're going to have a meet-and-confer on 25 Friday.

1 MR. SINGER: Sure. Sure.

2 THE COURT: The way electronic discovery typically
3 gets resolved, at least on an interim basis, is to agree on a
4 series of search terms. I don't know how many computers have
5 to be searched. I don't know whether they're tape backup
6 drives, whether they're hard drives, what the status is. I'm 7 not going to get -- I don't want to hear about it today, okay?

8 But I just know how electronic discovery typically 9 gets handled, and you're going to endeavor to do that at a meet
10 and confer.

11 MR. SINGER: And if we can't, then we will call the 12 Court for a conference, I believe you had said, correct?

13 THE COURT: You will.

14 MR. SINGER: Okay. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Okay. I was going to set a date for a
16 hearing on the pending motions to vacate recognition, but I'm 17 not going to do that until after these discovery issues that I
18 addressed today, after the discovery is produced.

19 And I want updated status reports, Mr. Marks, about -- 20 were you going to submit --

21 I've said to work out the terms of an order, and if 22 you can't, you'll let me know why by Friday. And in that there
23 should be an accompanying letter to indicate when this
24 remaining document production's going to be done. And then I
25 will set a hearing on --

1           So as I understand it, they'll talk separately about
2 the Richards Kibbe motion to withdraw. There are two motions
3 pending on vacating recognition of the two foreign proceedings;
4 is that correct?

5           MR. WORMS: Yes, Your Honor.

6           THE COURT: Mr. Worms. Are there any other motions
7 pending? The discovery disputes, I think I've dealt with that.
8 Are there any other substantive motions that are pending?

9           MR. MARKS: Yes, there's a real big one. That's what
10 we call the emergency motion regarding our clients' revoking
11 the LM Trust and taking possession of the over 4.2 million
12 dollars which has now been frozen. I really would like a 13 hearing on that, because --

14          THE COURT: Is that fully briefed?

15          MR. MARKS: It is -- no, Your Honor. What would 16 happen, Judge, is pursuant to Judge Vyskocil's chamber rules,
17 we submitted an order to show cause and the motion. She 18 granted the order to show cause, in part, at the May 29th
19 hearing by freezing the proceeds, but in the transition, 20 setting a hearing, a response date, and a hearing date got 21 lost, as it were.

22          THE COURT: May I -- let me --

23          MR. MARKS: We --

24          THE COURT: Just a second. Here's what I want done.
25 Okay. You've told me that not all briefing is complete.

1 MR. MARKS: They haven't responded.

2 THE COURT: Briefing is not complete.

3 MR. WORMS: May I?

4 THE COURT: Confer, and by Friday noon I want -- do it
5 as a separate letter with a proposed briefing schedule on --

6 This was item 1 in your letter, Mr. Marks. The 7 foreign representatives' emergency motion to enforce the 8 recognition order, et cetera. You filed your motion, right?

9 MR. MARKS: It was subsequently filed electronically.
10 It's on the docket. It's on the docket, Judge.

11 THE COURT: And so the response to the motion hasn't 12 been filed and your reply. So the remaining briefing is the 13 response to the motion and the reply. Okay.

14 By Friday at noon you will, if you can agree on that 15 remaining briefing, you'll put it in the letter. After seeing 16 that letter, I'll decide on scheduling a hearing on it. But I
17 want to see the briefs.

18 Just a second, Mr. Singer. Mr. Singer, are you
19 speaking to the emergency motion?

20 MR. SINGER: Well, I -- going ahead, absolutely. May 21 I say?

22 THE COURT: Go ahead.

23 MR. SINGER: So I had recently discovered from the 24 client that that account, the LM Revocable Trust account, is 25 about to be closed. It will be closed on August 25th. And

1 from what my client explained to me, that there is -- usually 2 you want to take care of that two weeks before, because they
3 start shutting down your ability to address those funds.

4 So what I would like to propose to the Court is in the 5 interim, and absolutely I'm confirming with the Court, because 6 I'm not going to violate any order still standing, to have that 7 money deposited into my escrow account, and then once an 8 appropriate decision is made, obviously, I would proceed
9 accordingly. But we don't want to -- we would obviously prefer
10 not to have a --

11 THE COURT: How much money is in the account?

12 MR. SINGER: I could tell you exactly. It is one --
13 it looks like it's a little over a million dollars.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Talk with Mr. Marks and see if you
15 can agree as to where the funds -- I don't want to hear any 16 more about it now. See if the two of you can agree on who 17 should hold the funds.

18 Is there any reason, Mr. Marks, the account shouldn't 19 be closed?

20 MR. MARKS: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So long as you're sure whether the 22 money is, right?

23 MR. MARKS: There's two accounts. There's the 540
24 Park Avenue and the LM Trust account. Be happy to have both of 25 them closed and the entire 4.2 million dollars paid into

1 hopefully something that the two of us can agree, or Your Honor
2 will call.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Singer?

4 MR. SINGER: That's fine. We'll confer with Mr.
5 Marks. The only issue is, Your Honor, if we can't agree,
6 because of the time I'm going to have to --

7 MR. MARKS: By Friday we'll respond to the Court.

8 THE COURT: I gave until Friday.

9 MR. SINGER: If we don't resolve, we'll have to ask
10 for expedited relief because of the timing of the bank's
11 timelines they've put on to us.

12 THE COURT: I can't imagine that you won't agree.

13 MR. SINGER: I think we will. I think we will.

14 THE COURT: This is something --

15 MR. SINGER: Very simple.

16 THE COURT: I can't imagine you're not going to agree 17 on this.

18 MR. SINGER: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Okay? And if you agree, put it in a
20 consent order, all right? Separate from an order on the other 21 discovery issues. It'll be a separate order that deals with 22 closing of the accounts, transfer into an escrow, et cetera.

23 Okay?

24 MR. SINGER: That's fine.

25 THE COURT: All right. When I see the letters on

1 Friday I will decide about how -- when I look at the remaining
2 briefing schedule, when I see whether there is -- what the 3 discovery schedule is for the remaining documents, I will
4 decide when to schedule the hearing on the motions to vacate
5 recognition. Is briefing completed on that?

6 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, if I might?

7 THE COURT: Go ahead.

8 MR. MARKS: Briefing is completed on the motion to 9 vacate the Larisa Markus recognition order. We ask that Your 10 Honor not impose the burden of us having to brief the motion to 11 vacate the bank's order pending a decision whether Mr. Worms is 12 authorized to represent the bank.

13 THE COURT: No. You're going to address the -- you're 14 going to address both, okay? If there's motions to vacate
15 recognition to both, you'll address both.

16 What briefs remain to be done on the bank?

17 MR. MARKS: There's no hearing date, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: I know there's no hearing date, but I'm 19 asking --

20 MR. MARKS: Well, we haven't filed our response.

21 THE COURT: When are you going to file the response?

22 MR. MARKS: We'd want two weeks, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Worms, you object to the two weeks?

24 MR. WORMS: Not at all, Judge.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. WORMS: And any reply --

2 THE COURT: And I'll give you a week to file a reply.

3 MR. WORMS: A week. Yes, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Put that schedule in a letter that
5 you're going to submit to me on Friday.

6 Just a second, Mr. Singer.

7 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, if I might? If it turns out
8 that Mr. Worms doesn't have authority --

9 THE COURT: No.

10 MR. MARKS: -- to represent the bank?

11 THE COURT: Look. He's appeared. He's counsel of 12 record. He's filed a motion to vacate recognition. You're 13 opposing it. You can oppose it. He can file a reply. That's 14 how we're going to proceed.

15 I'm not going to delay further, okay? You're not 16 going to put off -- I'm just telling you. Discovery is going
17 to go forward. This motion practice is going to go forward.
18 So I want to see whatever motions are pending. By noon Friday
19 I want to see the remaining briefing schedule on anything
20 that's open, okay? Oppositions and replies.

21 MR. WORMS: Judge?

22 THE COURT: Mr. Worms?

23 MR. WORMS: Just very briefly, Your Honor. I would 24 like to come back to the issue that seems unresolved so far,
25 which is the possibility for mediation towards settlement of 1 this case.

2 THE COURT: I'm not going to order mediation yet. I
3 think-- Mr. Worms, I'm a big fan of mediation.

4 MR. WORMS: Me too, Judge.

5 THE COURT: But I also, and I've said this quite often
6 from the bench. What's important in any mediation is that
7 there be a level playing field on information that's required
8 for each side to intelligently proceed with settlement
9 discussions.

10 It does seem to me that the issue of funds in the 11 United States or that flowed outside the United States that may 12 be subject to an avoidance claim here or elsewhere is required
13 to have a level playing field. I will be perfectly prepared to 14 direct mediation after there has been discovery of those 15 matters. Mr. Marks is entitled to have the information, which 16 it absolutely seems to me he needs, to be able to make an 17 intelligent settlement proposal. If he knows how much -- what 18 are the funds that are here, what funds were transferred out,
19 where did they go, can those be recovered in an adversary
20 proceeding in this court or do his clients have to go elsewhere
21 to do that? All that information is required, I think, for Mr.
22 Marks to be able to take a position in settlement. And yes,
23 I'm a fan of mediation, but it's important that he have this 24 basic information.

25 Do you agree, Mr. Marks?

1 MR. MARKS: I do, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Because I --

3 MR. MARKS: And --

4 THE COURT: You get the information, and I'm going to 5 push hard about the mediation issue.

6 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, I do, and there is, we 7 believe, some merit to having discussions with Mr. Bykov. That 8 we --

9 MR. WORMS: Was happening.

10 MR. MARKS: And I was only addressing the issue --

11 THE COURT: Please go ahead and have your discussions.

12 MR. MARKS: And we are in the process of that.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Okay.

14 MR. SINGER: May I -- Your --

15 THE COURT: Just stop.

16 MR. SINGER: No, no. There is something that has to 17 do with everybody, but it has to do -- it's for the Court too,
18 for Court's --

19 There is a pre-trial conference that was scheduled on 20 August 6th relating to something called 40 Broad Street. I
21 don't see the purpose of that going forward. I don't even know
22 what it would be going forward for at this point. So I'd like 23 to be clear that that's not happening. And I don't know if 24 there's any protest or what the position of other counsel is.
25 I don't even --

1 THE COURT: It's not on my calendar.
2 MR. MARKS: Your Honor, we agree. If it --
3 THE COURT: It's not on my calendar, Mr. Singer.
4 MR. MARKS: If it's not on your calendar --
5 MR. SINGER: It went on your calendar.
6 MR. MARKS: Your Honor has just solved the problem.
7 THE COURT: Okay.
8 MR. SINGER: I have one, and I will be quiet. One
9 thing.
10 THE COURT: Go ahead. So if somehow it didn't get on 11 my calendar but it's there, we're not having it on August 6th.
12 MR. SINGER: Okay. One thing and I'll be very quiet.
13 THE COURT: Okay.
14 MR. SINGER: There is no reason to delay mediation
15 because of no discovery. He has gotten --
16 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Singer?
17 MR. SINGER: -- so much discovery it is --
18 THE COURT: Mr. Singer?
19 MR. SINGER: He is --
20 THE COURT: Mr. Singer? I'm not ordering mediation
21 today. All right? There are issues about discovery that have 22 arisen today. I've dealt with them all. We're going to see
23 whether I get the orders on Friday or whether there continues
24 to be a dispute.
25 I am telling you, when there has been what I consider

1 to be a level playing field, I am going to come down very hard
2 on mediating it. But until all that information about how much
3 money is here in the United States, how much money was here and 4 got transferred out, where did it go, and Mr. Marks can 5 evaluate what, if anything, can be done to try and recover it.
6 Can a settlement be reached that deals exclusively with the 7 property that's in the United States with all rights reserved
8 to any claims or defenses as to property that was transferred 9 out? That may be a possibility as well. That's how we're 10 going to proceed.

11 We're adjourned.
